To Whom It May Concern:

It is my privilege to recommend Eric Broome as a speaker with Revelation 12 ministries. I have known Eric and his family for four years, and they are active members of Lifepoint Church. It is evident that he and Lori place a high priority on their family being apart of a local church.

As Eric's Pastor, I have witnessed first hand his discernment, dedication, and enthusiasm concerning the study of end time prophecy. In my twenty-seven years of ministry, I have heard gifted speakers and read multiple books on biblical prophecy. However, I have never had a person explain the end times with such clarity and insights as Eric Broome. His biblical explanations about the end times are not done recklessly but thoughtfully and carefully ensuring biblical accuracy.

Being in church leadership, I look for gifted speakers who can supplement my leadership by helping grow the people under my care. Each time Eric has spoken for me lives have been changed and the congregation has had a new understanding and appreciation for end time prophecy. I would not hesitate to use him again and know he would be a great benefit to any Pastor or church.

Working together,

Mark A. English, Pastor
