To Whom It May Concern,

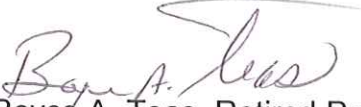

This is in reference to Mr. Eric Broome, lay evangelist with Revelation 12 Ministries. I have known Eric for a number of years and can personally attest to his integrity and godly lifestyle.

Eric's exceptional discernment in the understanding of Scripture and hearing from the Holy Spirit, coupled with a burning desire to publicly share the gospel with others, attest to his calling into full time ministry. He has on numerous occasions assisted me in public ministry. He has also spoken in various churches in the area. Eric has done a wonderful job on each occasion.

Additionally, Eric has deep insight into prophetic revelation, as well detailed in his soon coming book, The Final Harbinger.

Based on his personal devotion to the Lord Jesus, coupled with his God-given anointing for full time ministry, I do not hesitate in recommending Mr. Broome for any opportunity that may be afforded him in sharing and teaching the prophetic Word of God.

In Christ's Service,

Boyce A. Teas, Retired Pastor
General Council of the Assemblies of God
